RULES & CONDITIONS

This show does not require membership in any association, however, USEF rules will be the guideline for management in any disputes or situations not covered in the Rules section herein. Management decisions are final.

All classes will be held in the Parker Ring. Hunter classes will be shown over obstacles simulating natural fences, jumps to include coops, post and rails, logs, bales and brush jumps.

Horses and ponies to be judged on manners, way of going, evenness of pace, and style of jumping. Conformation is not judged. Soundness is required. Entrants will be excused after two refusals or an unintentional dismount. Unruly mounts may be excused at the discretion of the judge or management. The Grafton Horse Show reserves the right to split, cancel or combine classes. A minimum of three entries is required to hold any class.

Riders must be ready when classes are called. Classes will not be delayed.

All exhibitors will be required to sign an indemnity waiver as a condition of participation. Waiver will be included on entry form and submission of entry is considered acceptance of waiver terms.

Riders must wear the correct number while mounted. No entry can compete more than once per class.

All entries will be limited to entering and competing in 4 O/F classes including warm-up rounds and Derby.

Negative coggins within 12 months, and proof of EHV vaccination record within 6 months, of 9/7/2024 required. These documents will be required for number pickup. Coggins and EHV record can be emailed in advance to graftonhuntershow@upperville.com by 9/4/24.

No show-day class adds. Class swaps will be permitted.

Show-day scratches accepted before the class being scratched begins. You must scratch on horseshowsonline.com or in person in the office.

Non-Showing horses must enter, display a back number, and pay a non-showing horse fee of $35.

While mounted, all riders must wear approved safety helmets and back numbers.
